

D-III VOLLEYBALL

NO. 1 WINNISQUAM 3,

NO. 8 NUTE 0

The Bears (17-1) beat Nute, 25-20, 27-25, 25-19, in the quarterfinals, highlighted by a second-game comeback that was spearheaded by a Shawna Killcoyne diving save for a point.

Killcoyne (two kills, seven points, eight digs, five aces), Hannah Chapin (10 kills, five points, one ace), Bailey Long (nine kills, 12 points, nine aces), Elyssa Clairmont (18 kills, six aces), Mary Cartmell (one block, one kill, seven digs), Carissa Archibald (five digs) and Dalis Austin (three digs, four points) contributed throughout the match.

The Bears will take on No. 5 Moultonborough in the semifinals Wednesday at 8 p.m. Nute finished 11-7.

NO. 5 MOULTONBOROUGH 3,

NO. 13 BELMONT 1

The Red Raiders (9-9) managed to win one game against the Panthers (15-3) in the quarterfinals.

No details were reported.

FOOTBALL

PLYMOUTH 35,

JOHN STARK 14

The Generals (2-7) fought hard against a powerful Bob-

10 | 30 | 11

Nov 11

cats team that improved to 8-1 with the win.

Stefan Oesterreich scored on a 40-yard run in the third quarter for the Generals, while freshman Terry Zervos scored his first varsity TD in the fourth quarter. Jeremy Bolton and Carson Dunn led the team's ground game.

SANBORN 37,

BOW 28

The Indians (2-7) shocked the mistake-prone Falcons to snap a six-game losing streak and put Bow's playoff chances in jeopardy. Bow (5-4) was undone by penalties and mistakes early in the game. A second-half comeback fell short.

Mark Piroso led Bow's offense with two touchdowns, while Jay Parker and Mitchell Boyd each had one conversion, and Christian Robinson kicked two extra points.

Somersworth, the team Bow is battling for the final Division V playoff spot, still has just over a quarter left to play in its game against Stevens from September. Should Somersworth win, the Falcons are out. If Somersworth loses, the teams would